

3 Sefton Drive, Liverpool, L31 8AG

Offers Over £325,000

Berkeley Shaw present an immaculate four-bedroom semi-detached house situated in Maghull.

The property offers two well-proportioned reception rooms, providing flexible living and dining space with an additional snug area to the front of the property. Décor is neutral and contemporary throughout, with good natural light and a well-maintained finish. The modern kitchen features extensive cabinetry and worktop space, flowing through to a garden-facing area ideal for everyday family use. The ground floor further benefits from a double bedroom and a contemporary shower room, ideal for guests or multi-generational living. There is also a useful utility room and a practical porch to the front.

Upstairs, three comfortable bedrooms are arranged, including dormer-style rooms with characterful sloping ceilings and large windows. One additional room is utilised as an office currently. The bathroom offers a freestanding bath and separate shower, offering a stylish and functional layout for a family.

Outside, the house benefits from an attractive frontage and a neatly landscaped rear garden with lawn and paved terrace, providing a pleasant setting for outdoor seating and play.

Maghull offers a good range of local amenities, including nearby schools, supermarkets and independent cafés along Central Square and Westway. For green space, residents have access to parks and playing fields within a short drive, as well as the wider Sefton countryside and canal-side walks.
